

NC3 Technical Analyst

POSITION OVERVIEW

Work Location and Schedule:

Pentagon (Arlington, VA)

Mon – Fri (8-hour shift) Must perform work onsite

Responsibilities:

This position requires regular interaction with senior-level staff and external organizations in accordance with customer requirements. Leads and directs NC3 analyst activities in support of the Joint Staff J-36 priorities for the sustainment and modernization of future National Military Command System (NMCS) operational requirements. Represents and assists the J36 in planning, direction, and management of assessment requirements efforts of the NMCS. Oversees the assessments of National and Nuclear Command, Control, Communications (N2C3) system and capability activities, ensuring compliance with DoD and other regulatory policy.

Requirements:

1. Must already have an Active TS/SCI clearance
2. A minimum of 5 years of successful and pertinent experience of such nature and level as to provide a knowledge of the basic principles, theories, practices, techniques, terminology and expressions of Nuclear Command and Control/Nuclear Command and Control Communications. Must possess an understanding of the standard methods, procedures, and techniques if research and analysis in the subject matter field; ability to acquire subject matter information about the field and related fields; and knowledge of literature resources in the field.
3. Bachelor's degree
4. Must perform work onsite w/no telecommute option
5. Ability to function independently
6. Strong written communications abilities
7. Occasional travel as needed

How to Apply

Send your resume to contactus@logapp.com